

ALAMANCE COUNTY
OPIOID SETTLEMENT
BIDDERS CONFERENCE

December 30th, 2024 at 12 pm

OPIOID SETTLEMENT OVERVIEW

- The North Carolina Opioid settlement is part of a 56 billion-dollar national settlement with opioid manufacturers, distributors, and pharmacies accused of fueling the overdose crisis.
- Alamance County anticipates receiving $16,638,635 from 2022-2038. Funds from these settlements will help to bring desperately needed resources to those directly impacted by the opioid epidemic.

OPIOID SETTLEMENT MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

- The Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) is a binding legal document incorporated into the various settlement agreements and bankruptcy resolutions.
- The MOA governs the allocation, use, and reporting requirements for opioid settlement funds.
- Every local government that receives opioid settlement funds must abide by the MOA.
- Local governments are responsible for deciding which strategies to support with settlement funds. There are two lists of strategies; exhibit A which are high-impact abatement strategies, and exhibit B lists additional remediation activities.
- Local governments are also responsible for data collection, contract monitoring, holding an annual meeting, and annual financial & impact reporting.
